OVERVIEW

Our mission is simple:

Pull great businesses out of the noise so the right customers can finally see them.

PROBLEM STATEMENT

Founders with strong innovative products are drowning in crowded markets, struggling to gain visibility and customer recognition.

Globally, 90% of startups fail, the leading non-financial reasons include:

56%
Lack clear market
differentiation

42%
Customers don't understand what the business does

36%
Unclear messaging and positioning

Many businesses fail to communicate who they are?, why they're different, and why people should choose them
As a result their hard work isn't translating into traction, recognition or growth

SOLUTION

Lens is a strategic brand positioning agency that helps businesses gain clarity, and create momentum and stand out.

Lens uses psychology driven positioning and decades of proven business strategy to create clarity in the noisy crowd, and drive sustainable growth.

Lens system operates in a three phase framework

PHASE ONE - DEFINE

clearly position the brand so customers know why to choose them

PHASE TWO - DESIGN

create a differentiated identity so they stand out in the crowd

PHASE THREE - DOMINATE

with targeted digital marketing making them impossible to overlook

TRACTION

Lens officially launched on Thursday, May 7th, and within days, 8 businesses joined the waiting list without any marketing

Current clients include:

Horizon

Hylpandua

MyArteLab

King Empire

Gifted

Safe Space

SurePlug Series

Trump Concept

This early demand validates our core hypothesis:
Businesses desperately need clarity to standout in noisy competitive market

WHY US?

Markets are overcrowded,
Attention spans are depleted,
AI and automation are increasing competition,
groundbreaking innovations are getting buried under the dust

We're not just designers or marketers

We are a strategic clarity company; using proven business frameworks, psychology-driven analysis, and research-based positioning.

Lens helps businesses see themselves clearly and helps customers see them instantly

THE ASK

LENS is currently operating with the first two phases of its framework; strategic positioning, and identity development.

We are seeking $10,000 in funding to fully establish all three operational divisions:

- Strategic Positioning
- Identity Systems
- Digital Marketing

Funding allocation includes:

- Team setup and operational infrastructure for each system phase,
- Website and platform development,
- Marketing systems.
- The development of a trained AI model to analyze existing brands and spot weaknesses,

This funding will allow us to serve 73+ SMEs across North Central and North East Nigeria and scale operations sustainably
